

The allure of Huntress comes not only from offering the finest cuts of meat, signature dishes, and exceptional service, but from the sophisticated and contemporary environment. The main level is designed with strong architectural moments, such as a bold wall composed of framed butcher knives and a spectacular green-veined marble bar. Modern art pairs with vintage light fixtures, forging creative uses of light and craft. An aerial extension of the main level, the environment on the Mezzanine is intimate, sexy, and a bit more casual. Huntress is designed to be a destination for special occasions, memorable gatherings and a modern steakhouse experience.
